JUDGMENT

Before: HENDERSON and WILKINS, Circuit Judges, and RANDOLPH, Senior Circuit Judge.

THIS CAUSE came to be heard upon a petition filed by Grill Concepts Services, Inc., d/b/a The Daily Grill to review an Order of the National Labor Relations Board dated June 30, 2016, in Case Nos. 31-CA-126475, 31-CA-132845 and 31-CA-135061, reported at 364 NLRB No. 36, and upon a cross-application for enforcement filed by the National Labor Relations Board to enforce said Order. The Court heard argument of all parties and has considered the briefs and agency record filed in this cause. On January 29, 2018, the Court, being fully advised in the premises, handed down its judgment granting in part the Board's cross-petition for enforcement and remanding to the Board the remainder of the case. In conformity therewith, it is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED by the Court that Grill Concepts Services, Inc., d/b/a The Daily Grill, Los Angeles, California, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall abide by said order (See Attached Order and Appendix).

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

GRILL CONCEPTS SERVICES, INC.,
D/B/A THE DAILY GRILL

ORDER

Grill Concepts Services, Inc., d/b/a The Daily Grill, Los Angeles, California, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall

1. Cease and desist from
 - (a) Threatening employees with discharge or discipline if they engage in union activities.
 - (b) Soliciting employee complaints and grievances in order to discourage employees from selecting union representation.
 - (c) Coercively interrogating employees about their union activities and the union activities of other employees.
 - (d) Creating the impression that it is engaged in surveillance of its employees' union or other protected concerted activities.
 - (e) Promulgating and maintaining the following overly broad employee handbook rule:

A "Solicitation" rule that prohibits solicitation by off-duty employees in work areas during non-work time.
 - (f) In any like or related manner interfering with, restraining, or coercing employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed them by Section 7 of the Act.
2. Take the following affirmative action necessary to effectuate the policies of the Act.
 - (a) Rescind the rule listed in 1(e) above.
 - (b) Furnish all current employees with inserts for the current employee handbook that (1) advise that the unlawful rule has been rescinded, or (2) provides the language of a lawful rule; or publish and distribute a revised employee handbook that (1) does not contain the unlawful rule, or (2) provides the language of a lawful rule.

- (c) Within 14 days after service by the Region, post at its facility in Los Angeles, California, copies of the attached notice marked "Appendix A" in both English and Spanish, and at all other locations where the unlawful employee work rule has been in effect, copies of the attached notice marked "Appendix B" in both English and Spanish. Copies of the notices, on forms provided by the Regional Director for Region 31, after being signed by the Respondent's authorized representative, shall be posted by the Respondent and maintained for 60 consecutive days in conspicuous places including all places where notices to employees are customarily posted. In addition to physical posting of paper notices, the notices shall be distributed electronically, such as by email, posting on an intranet or an internet site, and/or other electronic means, if the Respondent customarily communicates with its employees by such means. Reasonable steps shall be taken by the Respondent to ensure that the notices are not altered, defaced, or covered by any other material. In the event that, during the pendency of these proceedings, the Respondent has gone out of business or closed the facility involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notice marked "Appendix A" to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at any time since October 12, 2013. If the Respondent has gone out of business or closed any facilities other than the one involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notice marked "Appendix B" to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at those facilities at any time since October 12, 2013.
- (d) Within 21 days after service by the Region, file with the Regional Director for Region 31 a sworn certification of a responsible official on a form provided by the Region attesting to the steps that the Respondent has taken to comply.
