BEFORE: Henderson, Childs, and Pan, Circuit Judges

ORDER

Upon consideration of the emergency motion for a stay pending appeal, which includes a request for an immediate administrative stay, it is

ORDERED that the district court's August 1, 2025 order be administratively stayed pending further order of the court insofar as it may have the effect of precluding the government from initiating expedited removal proceedings pursuant to 8 C.F.R. §§ 1.2 and 235.3(b)(1)(i). However, this administrative stay does not apply insofar as the district court's order prohibits the government from applying expedited removal to former parolees who have been continuously present in the United States for longer than two years. Appellants do not seek a stay pending appeal to the extent the district court's order has that effect. The purpose of this administrative stay is to give the court sufficient opportunity to consider the emergency motion for stay pending appeal and should not be construed in any way as a ruling on the merits of that motion or the scope of the district court's order. See D.C. Circuit Handbook of Practice and Internal Procedures 33 (2025). It is
